Elwood and Elrond Snead are owners/operators of Snead Brothers Funeral Home. While attempting to invent a new kind of embalming fluid, they inadvertently invent a formula that has the power to resurrect the dead. After this discovery the brothers Snead decide to go into the business of resurrection. They're clients are literally dying to get in on the deal. But things begin to spiral out of everyone's control. The question being: What the heck are we going to do with all these insane zombies?.
