Excerpt from The Carolina Journal of Pharmacy, Vol. 20: January, 1939; Man of the Year in North Carolina Pharmacy About December 10 we received word about a model state act to supplement the Federal statute enacted last Summer by the Congress. The copy of this model uniform act was drafted by a committee of Food and Drug officials and it was our opinion that the proposal was unwise in that it was not uniform in several respects with the Federal Act. After studying the various proposals, we used up our entire editorial space in an effort to analyze the probable dangers we would encounter if we lent our energies in supporting a statute that does not conform to the interstate act. At the time we wrote the editorial material, we were in the midst of a very busy season and unpardonably we failed to keep fully abreast of other developments that were taking place in respect to the proposed act that had been sent to us. The developments in question consisted chiefly of a well considered, thoroughly...
