Moody Publishers, United States, 2006. DVD video. Book Condition: New. 188 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Mr. Fixit's shop is a safe place where kids with troubled hearts and real life problems come for answers to their tough questions. Every episode finds Mr. Fixit telling captivating stories to convey practical Biblical truth from his trademark Big Red Book. Your kids will want to return to Mr. Fixit's shop again and again, and experience the truths that are taught there. Ages: 5-10 1 Ahab the Pouting King Mike would rather have his friend's model helicopter than his new bike, until he learns how selfishness led King Ahab down a bad path. 2 The Fiery Furnace Jimmy gets a real life example of how to stand up for what he believes, even when it isn't the most popular thing to do. 3 The Baby Moses When Jill has to stay home from summer camp to take care of her brother she is very disappointed, but then she learns about how Moses' life (and the life of a whole nation) was saved because he was cared for as a baby. 4 Elijah and the Prophets of Baal Tom brings an idol to school for show-and-tell, but then he learns about how God rained fire down from heaven to embarrass the Baal worshipers. 5 Noah and the Ark Bobby learns from the story of Noah how God knows all of our actions, and someday we all have to answer for them. 6 Daniel in the Lions Den Freddy begins to understand how important it is to do things God's way, even though it might sometimes put you in a very tough spot. 7 Gideon Even though Jimmy feels like a nobody, he learns from the story of Gideon that...
