Excerpt: . . . i chapter at Ohio Wesleyan was broken up by eight desertions to Beta Theta Pi. The editor of the Alpha Delta Phi Star and Crescent has just made the discovery that There is in actual existence, with chapters in a number of colleges, a fraternity of ladies, anomalous as it may sound. The name of the fraternity (sic) is the Kappa Kappa Gamma, and that of its journal the Golden Key. Where has this Rip Van Winkle been sleeping these twenty years There is an element in Beta Theta Pi which seems to strongly favor a chapter at Ohio State University, to which there appears to have been some opposition. The correspondent of the Beta paper from Ohio Wesleyan writes: He doubts that a certain institution is a growing institution, but since the fact of the rapid growth of the O. S. U. is conceded...
