Every member therefore has life in Christ in common with all other members. There is one body and spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling. We therefore know no man after the flesh in the kingdom, for we are all one in Christ Jesus. These mortal bodies which are born of the flesh are flesh, and their inheritance is in the earth. They are under the irrevocable sentence of death. They must be sown corruptible, in dishonor, and c. , but they shall be quickened and raised up by the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead; they must put on immortality and incorruption, and be raised spiritual bodies, and brought in by adoption, but not in the relations and distinctions which now exist, for in the resurrection they shall not marry nor be...
