THE BLUE LAKE LOOP. 35 Edwards, in southeastern Kidder County, and another near its south end. A still more conspicuous gap, toward which a prominent line of depressed lakes leads and which cuts down to the level of the plain, is a little south of the southeastern corner of Stutsman County. The drainage of this loop in its western half and possibly through its whole extent was into a plain lying between it and the First moraine, which it is judged drained northwest into Long Lake Valley. The plain west of Napoleon was 5 or 6 miles wide and much of it was covered with a fine layer of loam, while in other places it was very gravelly or sandy. From the north an outlet from Lake Edwards into Long Lake Valley was noticed, and reports of the same were gained from settlers. Inside of this principal line of the moraine, extending nearly parallel with the outer number, is a system of clustered hills, which, in the northeastern part of Logan County, are quite conspicuous, rising to a height of 60 to 70 feet above the surrounding country. One of them visited presented the unusual appearance of a flat-topped butte with numerous lake beds around it and leading from its southeastern side. The moraine is very imperfectly developed along the head of the interlobe in northeastern Logan County, especially toward the north, where the material of...
