Repeated discussion had led all of us to concur as to the points demanding special attention, just as lawyers would concur on the critical points in an abstract of title. After this agreement was attained, the formal meetings were discontinued. We were all now in accord as to the method of inquiry. Henceforth the cases which reached one or another member of the Committee were dealt with by that member, who worked up the evidence to the best of his power; and such consultation as took place was of an informal kind. The Committee met again, when it was necessary to make a preliminary selection of the cases to be published in Phantasms of the Living; but as to a very large number of cases, received since that time, the decision has been made by two or three members - the evidential requirements having been by...
